Rebecca and Clinton enjoyed traveling and fishing, they went to Alaska and caught beautiful salmon. She taught herself to play the keyboard and could play almost any song she heard by ear. Most of all she loved and adored her family, she was the matriarch of the family and she took that role very seriously, she was always there to lend an ear and give advice in a way that was always kind with her words. Her family is forever grateful for the loving advise she gave, the beautiful quilts she gifted them, and for her loving spirit in which they were raised.
