“ I extend my prayers and thoughts to each member of the family at to the passing of my old friend, Ada Thompson O'Dell. I remember Ada and Roy as being very kind people and it was always a pleasure to see them. Roy was also a distant cousin. She is gone but not forgotten. " Another one from us is gone, a voice we love is still; a place is vacant in our midst that never can be filled." She can't come back to you but you can go to be with her. God bless and comfort all of you.

“ She's my great aunt and she will be missed greatly. I remember when we were kids we would go swimming with her and grandma at the river. She was a great lady and I always enjoyed going out to visit her and roy. Now she's in heaven with her husband and my grandma lavada and grandpa clint. We will miss you dearly but we know that you are watching from above. We love you.
