

Ann B Ralston

March 24, 1946 - June 14, 2026

Ann B. Ralston, 80, passed away peacefully on June 14, 2026, in St. Genevieve, Missouri.

Ann was born on March 24, 1946, to Fred Overby and Floy (Light) Overby. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents.

For many years, Ann dedicated her life to serving others as a nurse. She touched the lives of countless patients through her exceptional caregiving. Nursing was more than a profession to Ann—it was her calling, and she cared for each person with genuine warmth and dedication.

Outside of her career, Ann found joy in the beauty of Missouri's outdoors and loved hiking its many scenic trails. She was an avid reader with a passion for literature, especially books focused on personal growth and self-improvement. Ann cherished lifelong learning and continually sought opportunities to expand her knowledge and understanding of the world around her.

Ann also shared a special bond with her faithful dog, Sibie, whose companionship brought her endless comfort and happiness.

She is survived by her daughters, Erika (Schafer) Bland of Rolla, Missouri, Carol Schafer of St. Genevieve, Missouri, and Reba Herdon of Rolla, Missouri; her sister, Dottie Chapman of Oklahoma; her grandchildren, Shannon Schafer, Elisha Yerk, Jeff Yerk, Matthew Yerk, Amy Misplay, Andrew Misplay, Sierra Herdon, and Nethon Thomas; twelve great-grandchildren; along with numerous extended family members and dear friends who will miss her greatly.

The family will be holding a private service at a future date.

Ann was a special person who touched many lives. Her quiet strength will forever be remembered. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her.

The family will hold a private memorial service at a future date.
