“ What a lady! I could never have had a better mentor and friend. We enjoyed so many years of teaching together and, even in retirement , getting together with our Lunch Bunch. It was even sweeter when she stayed over at our house and we could visit the whole evening away. She will not be forgotten by me and by so many others her life impacted! She didn't just enrich our brains but also left big footprints on our hearts!

“ Anne was my cousin so my memories of her stretch throughout our lives. I'm so glad I went to Foxwood Springs in Raymore to visit her Feb. 8. We enjoyed talking about our memories of times we spent together as children, family reunions, etc. We have maintained contact throughout our adult lives too, and when she called me around Christmas we agreed to get together after the holidays. I will miss Anne and our conversations. I want to extend my deepest sympathy to Eric, LeAnne, Ned & his family.
