Betty Lou Mason, of New Braunfels, Texas passed away on Friday, October 4, 2019 at the Colonial Manor Care Center at the age of 88. Betty Lou was born in Quaker, Missouri on April 5, 1931 to William "Corbet" and Ethel (Boyer) Mason.

Beyond her musical capabilities, Betty Lou also shared her artistic capabilities by re-purposing common items found in thrift shops and garage sales, transforming them into works of art, utilizing her skills as a seamstress, painter, and woodworker. She could see beauty in everything around her.

Betty Lou was a devoted mother who raised four children who were her pride and joy. She enjoyed traveling across country to stay close to her family. Her love and compassion were beyond measure, always willing to share what she had with everyone. She exuded beauty and grace as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, and will be greatly missed and loved by all.

“ My Grandmother was an amazing person. She and I spent alot of time together. We took multiple road trips together, she was game for anything. She would say "Well alright".

On one trip that stands out we went to Missouri to visit her sisters, my Aunt Gladys and Aunt Joyce. Aunt Gladys sat at the piano, and the three of them started singing, which was beautiful. Then they got to giggling and laughing. They started teasing each other and reminiscing. It was wonderful to witness. She loved playing her guitar and singing. I can hear her singing "Country Roads" or Running Bear and Little Dove".

We went to church every Sunday and Wednesday and after she would cook. When I didn't want to go she insisted on going and vice versa so we rarely missed a day. We kept each other in check. She lived the word, she was childlike at heart, she gave in every way she could. She was so encouraging and loving.

She was whiffleball in the park, craft projects, singing and laughing at the top of our lungs and down home cooking.

I love and miss her dearly.
