“ Aunt Chatlene was always up for a good laugh and had the warmest smile. I remember her visiting and some of us were sitting at the kitchen table. Aunt Charlene went to sit in the chair and it went out under her and she fell to the floor on her behind. Of course we all rushed to her to make sure she was ok. Aunt Charlene stood up, looked behind her and said, " It's ok, it's not broke, just a crack". And we all laughed.

Aunt Charlene have the warmest hugs that I will miss until I meet her again in Heaven. The last time I seen her when she came to Michigan, we hugged so long and so hard, I will forever hold that moment close to my heart. I love you so so very much.

“ Momma, we had our ups and downs and I've always loved you; but in the last few years we've talked, we've laughed a lot, we've cried a lot, to the point you were no longer just my Mother... you were my best friend and I miss you dearly.

Tamir came over the other day and he went to your bedroom door and stooped, looked around the corner and said " Bamma gone?". It broke my heart. The grand babies all miss you already too.

Your wings were ready and waiting for you, but I wasn't. Praise God I know where you are and know I will see you and Dad again in the ultimate Praisefest! I love you so much.

Momma, we had our ups and downs, but these last few years you've become more than just my mother. You were my best friend; and I miss you so much. I can't hold your hand, or hug your neck, but I praise God I know where you are and I will see you again! Your wings were ready... but I was not. I will forever love you. It was an honor having you as my Mother.
