Dittman had been fraudulently stealing money and embezzling from many of the banks that he worked at and really wasn't the good fella that people thinks he was. And was not on the level at all.

“ David was my roommate and partner for the Edward Jones 13 week training program. He was one of the greatest guys I have ever known. We both share the name David and each of us thought we were the funniest and fastest guy in our training class. Near the end of our training we just had to find out who was the fastest "stockbroker." We lined up in the hotel hallway and ran about a 100 yards in a dash neither of us would/will ever forget. David was fast, funny, and one of my favorite friends. We met almost 30 years ago and talked just weeks ago as not a day had passed. He shared with me that my karaoke performance of "Roxanne" by the Police made his list of "top five funniest moments in life." I asked him if he remembered a song that was popular during our brief time hanging out, it was some off the wall song called 'How Bizzare' by OMC, he said listening to that song brought him to tears thinking of the fun we had so many years ago, I agree. We all need to be a bit more like David. I will miss you buddy.

To the family and friends of David, I am so sorry for your loss.
