

Delbert Ray Halbrook

June 30, 2018

Delbert Ray Halbrook, native of Salem, Missouri and resident of Bossier, LA for 45 years, passed away on June 30, 2018 at the age of 81 after a lengthy illness.

Delbert honorably served his country in the United States Air Force and retired after 27 years of service with the rank of Senior Master Sergeant. After retirement, Delbert began a second career in the oil field as a District Manager with Geo Vann and ultimately retiring after 24 years as a field service manager with Halliburton. He was an avid outdoorsman, enjoyed turkey hunting and bass fishing, and by far was the number one fan of the St. Louis Cardinals.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Jeri Ann Halbrook Santangelo; his mother, Ruby M. Halbrook and father, Delbert Franklyn Halbrook. He is survived by his daughter, Lisa Gail Halbrook; son, Kevin Jay Halbrook; sister, Charisa May Halbrook Brooks; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The family would like to express their sincere appreciation to the Doctors and Staff of Promise Hospital, and a special heart felt thank you to Stephanie and Bobby Grantham from their support and guidance in our family's time of sorrow.

Graveside services for Delbert Ray Halbrook will be held 10:00AM Saturday, July 7, 2018 in the Miner Cemetery in Salem, Missouri.
