“ Dear Aunt Elinor, I have so many good memories of you from my childhood. I always enjoyed the times both our families spent at Little Piney River, and you were always so nice to me when I was at your home. I have no doubt that you and my mom are in Heaven right now, having a cup of coffee and enjoying each other's company once again. Love, Valerie

“ Phillip, Roger and Family. So very sorry for the loss of your mom. I have known you and your mom 50 or so years. As I grew older and married and moved away, she always asked about my family and I. I always walked across the street when I was in town to say hi. She was such a nice lady and a wonderful friend and neighbor to my mom. They talked and laughed all the time. What good memories. She will be missed by many. My mom will miss her dear friend and neighbor a lot. She had a great love of birds and animals. RIP Mrs Rosenberg.
