

Flora "Juanita" Harrison

February 7, 1924 - November 8, 2019

Flora "Juanita" Harrison, of Omaha, Nebraska, formerly of St. James, Missouri, passed away on Friday, November 8, 2019 at the Heritage Pointe Assisted Living Center in Omaha, at the age of 95. Juanita was born in Rolla, Missouri on February 7, 1924 to the late Leonard Henry and Sarah Rebecca (Willson) Pilger.

Juanita went to work at Rolla State Bank, which was later bought by Commerce Bank, where she worked her way up from a teller position to head of bookkeeping and balancing. After she retired she moved to Omaha, Nebraska to be with her son. She was a longtime member of the St. James Solid Rock Christian Church, she enjoyed playing cards, and especially loved getting together with friends to play pinochle; her later years, she found the world of online games, words with friends, became her new favorite. She was a loving and devoted mother, and grandmother, and will be forever missed by everyone who know and loved her.

Juanita is survived by her son, Dr. William L. Harrison, of Omaha, NE; grandchildren, Sarah Rebecca Marks, and William Owen Harrison; a host of extended family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Leonard and Sarah Pilger.

Funeral services will be held at 11:30AM on Saturday, November 16, 2019 at the St. James Chapel of the James & Gahr Mortuary with Randy Ridenhour officiating. Internment will be at the St. James Cemetery. A visitation for family and friends will be held at the Chapel on Saturday prior to the service from 10:00AM until service time.

“ Sorry for your loss. My mother, Rose Mary Spilman Lorts, also worked at Rolla State Bank around 1958. You never hear mention of Rolla State Bank. My mother was born in 1927. My mother's grandfather, Joseph Campbell was a founding member of the bank.
