He was born on January 25, 1951, in Long Beach, California to the late Willard Truman and Minnie Faye (Burkhart) Hogue. Floyd's family moved to Salem, Missouri in 1963; this is where he met the love of his life, Mary Kaye McWhorter. Floyd was fourteen years old, and Mary was just thirteen, but it was love at first sight; the two were married on August 15, 1969. This union was blessed on November 23, 1971, with one daughter, Sondra Renee' Hogue.

Floyd owned and operated Best Little Hair House in Rolla, Missouri, running the tattoo and body piercing shop. He loved his daily talks to one of his best friends, Paul Crabtree. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle and fishing with his best friends, Mike Shields, Gail Bullock and the late Dave Franklin and Johnny Yates. If Floyd told you he would do something, he did it. His handshake was his word. Floyd was a great husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend who will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him.

In addition to his parents, Floyd was preceded in death by one grandson, Dallas Truman Hogue.

Floyd is survived by his loving wife of fifty-two years, Mary Hogue of Rolla, Missouri; daughter, Sondra Hogue of St. James, Missouri; grandchildren, Teneke Lynn Hogue and Zane Adam Petty; great-grandchildren, Kaydenze Elizah Guinn, Kynlee Alyce Hogue, Kynzee May Hogue and Jayce Truman Hogue; brothers, Wilbur Dean (Pat) Hogue of Lenox, Missouri and Keith
