I am sorry to hear of George passing. I'm sure he will be missed. Such a nice looking man. He was 12 when I was born. I would go to his house as a little girl. I especially liked his mother. She was kind to me. Would give me chocolate chips.

Oh so long ago George lived up the west road from my house. I was just a little girl. Doris would come babysit with us 4 kids. Rodney. Janice. Marvin. Clyde. Then Lana was born August 10, 1953. One time she brought Walter with her. (We named our youngest son Walter.) Doris read stories to us. She taught me to play Mocking Bird Hill on the piano. I was in second grade. 1953. She gave me one of her highschool graduation pictures. A side pose. She had a light color sweater on. Still have it. When Doris got married in the Catholic church in Wilmington Mother and I went to the wedding. Doris was lovely that day.

Many years later about 1965 Doris came to the farm to see my parents. They were not home so Doris and I stood in the back yard and talked. She told me that as a little girl I always wanted her to read the story over that she had just read to me. Ha. Doris was a favorite person of mine. When I was a child Doris was tall to me but of course I was in 2nd grade. When she came to visit I was much taller than she was. Up until then I never thought of her as short.

I would go down to her house to play. There were some other children there and we played hide.n.seek in the house. One of Mrs Flint's sons must have had a motorcycle because there was a wide black leather belt with studs in it and a black leather motorcycle jacket.

*When I was at a Reed=Custer Highschool reunion summrt of 2019 a male relative of Doris's was there. I gave him my card with name. Address. Phone number on it. Asked him to give it to her thinking perhaps she would contact me. I've never heard from her. If someone reads this will you see that Doris gets my address. I'd like to send her a card. She must be 88 now as I figure it.
So many memories from the past.*

May you hold the warm memories of George fast in your  hearts forever.
