Harley Wanye Hasten Sr. of Bunker, Missouri, Born to the late Jesse and Florence (nee Kay)

Hasten on September 18, 1941, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on February 29, 2024.

Harley married Judy (Nee. Edwards) Hasten the love of his life for 62 and a half year on September 29, 1962, their marriage brought two sons, Harley Wayne Hasten Jr of St. Louis and Brian Keith Hasten and wife Tracy of Union, Missouri.

Harley was one of the four siblings, one brother Terry Hasten and his wife Gail of Moscow Mills, Missouri along with two sisters Sharon Fuller of Salem, Missouri, and Joan Maulding of Bartlett, Tennessee.

Harley was a caring and loving guy, and even a little stubborn here and there. He loved and was so proud of his sons and daughter-in-law Tracy, who had the privilege of caring for him these last several months. Harley had faith and love in the lord. He enjoyed his time with family and friends, going to bluegrass festivals and watching and reading westerns, playing Skip-Bo with Judy every morning, Playing cards with friends. Harley and Judy enjoyed trips in their RV. He was always happy to help a neighbor, friend, or family member. Harley never met a stranger. He was always a hard worker and enjoyed working and continued to do so until last year when his health declined.

Along with Harley's parents Jesse (Florence) Hasten his special Uncle Roy

Kay proceeded him in death.

The family wishes memorial donations to the Bunker Volunteer Fire department, cards are available at all James & Gahr locations.
