

Jacqueline Frances Meyers

June 19, 1963 - May 20, 2024

Born with the aristocratic name of Jacqueline Francis, on June 19, 1963, Jackie Meyers was anything but fussy. She was a strong, determined, no-nonsense, get-things-done woman who loved her family with her whole heart. She was both fiercely protective and incredibly generous to those fortunate to be within her circle. This radius included any stray animal that made its way into her life. Well read, Jackie was an autodidact who never stopped her quest to learn. She would spend hours and hours researching and learning about new things, but didn't have time to waste on frills, fancy coffee or false airs. That is with exception of her beautifully manicured nails. Those were works of art.

A proud and loving wife to Doyle Meyers and mom to three sons, Carl, Cody and Doyle Jr. (Bub), Jackie passed away suddenly on May 20, 2024, from a recurring condition she had battled and beaten in the past. Jackie was completely devoted to her family. She supported her sons' endeavors, cheering them on every step of the way. Her delightfully mischievous sense of humor brightened conversations, and her candid demeanor brought out the best in everyone. Jackie's life, travels and interests are well-documented through her love for photography. She adored many things in life, including Welsh Corgis, Highland coos (cows), California poppies, and anything and everything the color purple. Jackie enjoyed reading, gardening, bird-watching, hiking, hunting, fishing and taking road trips with her favorite traveling companion, Doyle. Their travels took them across the US and into Alaska as well as across the globe, reaching the countries of Argentina, Ireland, and walking tours of Scotland. She beguiled close friends and family with amusing stories from these travels, as well as the continuing adventures of Douglas, the Traveling Stuffed Corgi.

Jackie retired after 22 years of service as a correctional peace officer with the State of California. She and Doyle then pursued their dream of simple living in rural Missouri. Jackie took to her new homestead by sharing it with chickens, ducks, and goats. Ever generous as she was in life, Jackie is survived by her husband, her sons, daughters-in-law; Aracely, Kayla and Savannah, six grandchildren; Landon, Kearstyn, Weston, Ezra, Everly and Tamriel, and three of her siblings Terry Tincher, Christine Tincher, and Julie Siragusa. She was preceded in death by her mother Bernice, brother Tracy and many other loved ones that she will now be reunited with. As giving as she was in life, Jackie gave her organs in her passing to those who needed them.
