

Jeanne Amsden

September 6, 1940 - February 22, 2021

Eva “Jeanne” Jewelean Amsden (Jones) passed away on February 22, 2021 at her home in Nixa, Missouri at the age of 80 years. She spent her last days surrounded with love by her husband, children, grandchildren, and grand-dogs.

Jeanne was born in Okolona, Arkansas on September 6, 1940 to Clifford and Jewel Jones. She had four siblings: Ben, Jake, Bob and Joan. The family moved to Missouri when she was a child. She attended high school in Doe Run, Missouri where she graduated valedictorian. Jeanne married Stanley Amsden on September 22, 1962. Together they had three children: Craig, Pam, and Chris; and seven grandchildren: Mandy, Cody, Andrew, Bradley, Conner, Erica, and Lanie.

Jeanne was a wonderful woman who loved fiercely and unconditionally. She was strong, brave, and sometimes stubborn. Jeanne loved to take care of others. She was a good golfer, an excellent cook, and could plan the perfect vacation with a moment’s notice. She loved animals, laughter, and the sunshine.

Jeanne is survived by her husband, Stanley Amsden; daughter, Pam Johnson and son-in-law, Thomas Johnson; son, Chris Amsden and partner, Kari Frantz all of Nixa, MO. Grandchildren: Amanda Amsden and partner, Roger Brocato of Memphis, TN, Cody Amsden of Rolla, MO, Andrew Johnson of Charlotte, NC, and Bradley Johnson, Conner Johnson, Erica Johnson, and Lanie Amsden, all of Nixa, MO; brothers: Ben Jones, and wife Delores Jones of Belleville, IL and Jake Jones of Virginia. As well as a host of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Bob Jones; sister, Joan Hurst; and son, Craig Amsden.

Funeral Service for Jeanne was Monday, March 1, 2021 at 1:00 PM at the James & Gahr Chapel in Salem, Missouri. Visitation was be from 11:00 AM until service time. Pallbearers were Thomas Johnson, Andrew Johnson, Bradley Johnson, Conner Johnson, Roger Brocato, and Shane Pain
