

Jessie Mae Luebbert

January 15, 1930 - August 11, 2021

Jessie Mae (Wiles) Luebbert was born on January 15, 1930 to Tom and Lillie Wiles. She passed away on August 11, 2021 at the age of 91.

She was united in marriage on May 1, 1949 to Fritzie Joseph Luebbert and to this union, four children were born: Brenda Jo, Thomas Anthony, Terry Joseph and Mary Beth.

Jessie graduated from Southwest Baptist College in Boliver, MO. She began her teaching career in rural Dixon in a one room school house. Later she moved to St. James and taught at the Matlock School house, north of St. James. Jesse started her own nursery school and taught many area children and later worked as an Assistant Teacher in the St James School district.

While educating and teaching young children brought much joy to her life, her biggest love was always her family. She was a very involved mother and was also active with the Caring Center throughout her life here where she and Fritzie were once crowned Queen and King. They spent many days delivering meals throughout the area.

Another important part of her life was her love for God and her Church. She was a very active member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Tom and Lillie Wiles, her husband, Fritzie

Luebbert and one daughter, Brenda Jo, two sisters, Georgia Bullock and Noreen

Rollins, and one brother, Vearl Wiles.

Jessie leaves behind her children, Thomas Luebbert and his wife Debbie, Terry Luebbert and his wife Carol and one daughter, Mary Beth Trokey and her husband Morgan Trokey Jr.; grandchildren, Wesley Luebbert and his wife Karana, Patric Luebbert, Tarah (Trokey) and her husband Matt Freeman, Morgan Trokey III, Carli Luebbert and Tony Luebbert; great grandson Wyles Luebbert.

Jessie was a loving person, who touched many lives and will be greatly missed by her family and all that knew and loved her. She will be laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery in St James.
