

Joe O. Perry

August 29, 1941 - February 29, 2016

Joe O. Perry son of the late Omer Leo Perry and Mary E. (Bowles) Perry Ray was born August 29, 1941 and entered into rest February 29, 2016 in Salem, Missouri at the age of 74.

Joe was united in marriage to Rowla Whittiker on June 4, 1960 and to this union two children were born.

Joe was a hardworking man that worked in construction for many years. He would be most proud of his relationship with his granddaughters. He loved them more than anything and got to spend his last year's enjoying his great grandkids. They all have very fond memories of fishing, hunting, and boating trips together. They remember baking chocolate cakes, homemade biscuits and fish fry's with the family. He became an avid St. Louis Cardinal fan, but also could enjoy sitting by his window to watch the birds and squirrels outside. Joe would probably be best remembered for his ornery personality. He will be loved and missed by all who knew him.

Joe is survived by his wife Rowla Perry of the home; son, Joe Perry of Salem, Missouri; grandchildren, Ciara Kitchen and husband Nathan of Salem, Missouri, Casey Kotschedeoff and husband Josh of Salem, Missouri, Chelsey Perry of Salem, Missouri; sisters, Mary Lee Camp of California, and Ann Wethington of Mt. Vernon, Missouri; great-granddaughters, Cami, Carly, Cori Kotschedoff, and Ellee Perry. In addition to his parents, Omer and Mary Joe was preceded in death by his son William Ray Perry and step father W.T. Ray.

A graveside service for Joe O. Perry will be held 11:00AM Saturday, March 5, 2015 at the Lake Springs Cemetery in Lake Springs, Missouri with Brother Matt Milligan officiating.

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of my good friend, Joe Perry. It has been an honor to know the Perry and Bowles families over the many years. You are all special friends. Those we love go out of sight but never out of mind. Their memory always lingers with those they leave behind. My thoughts and prayers are with each one of you. God bless everyone.
