Karen was a great encouragement to so many in both education and worship. A top-level elementary teacher, she was also “a ringer of a singer” and a faithful friend to the music ministry at Parkway Baptist Church through the years, including the senior adult ministry where she accompanied until she could no longer do it. As a support to her choral director husband, Ken in both churches and schools, there is no doubt she had to be the very finest. She was and is a faithful servant of the Lord who will be very greatly missed!
