“ Jean was a faithful member of our Springs Chapel here in sunny AZ. She attended every Sunday until her health prevented it. We could count on her to pray for everyone faithfully on Sunday's bulletin prayer sheet. She also would pray for requests that came to her on her ipad (thru the Chapel Email Prayer Chain). Before Helen Venosdel (neighbor and Chapel friend) took her bulletins to her I used to stop and visit with her when I took the bulletin to her, when she was no longer attending services. We always had a nice visit... she used to ask questions about the sermon (topic and verses printed in the bulletin).

She was so devastated when her son Mark died, but was so glad he was no longer suffering.

We loved Jean and will miss her but her goal was to go to heaven and join Mark and her grandson. We are so glad she is with her Savior, Jesus.

Praying for you, Chrissy (you took such good care of Grandma Jean...doing all she would let you do for her). Praying for you, John and Donna and all of Jean's family for God's comfort for you all.
