“ Kermit ,

I have known of you for many years , even worked for you at the restaurant years ago. But I hadn't really got to know the true you until over the past couple years. You were a strong willed , stubborn individual but when it came down to it ,at the end of day you were truly a big hearted person who loved to do things for others and wanted to see people happy. We had a few good hearted conversations over the late night nutty bar break. And there wasn't a McDonalds you could pass up. Although you and Kelli would have your moments , you both knew just how much you loved each other.

Although we miss you and your everyday adventures , we know you are truly at peace with the love of your life , Miss Martha. There wont be a nutty bar that I eat or a McDonalds that I will be able to pass without the thought of you crossing my mind , but I will smile and find peace in knowing our paths will cross again someday but until then , rest in peace Kermit , we love and miss you .
