

Leona M. Williamson

July 14, 1940 - June 22, 2017

Leona Williamson (nee Grubb) has been called home and is now asleep in Jesus, June 22, 2017 Daughter of the late Albert and Pearl Grubb. Dear wife of the late Larry Williamson and dear sister of the late Mary Ellen Grubb. Leona is survived by her daughter Jennifer Bauer & her husband Kevin, her son William Biddle III, her daughter Allison Arias & her husband Scott Wittler and their children Alex Arias & Todd Wittler, her step-son David Williamson, her brother George Grubb, her cousin Jody Sanders, many other relatives and her lovable dogs Callie & Otis.

Leona was a well-traveled and very accomplished woman. In addition to raising her three children, Leona had a wonderful career at Phelps County Bank in Rolla, MO where she worked her way up from receptionist to VP of the Mortgage and Loan Department. In addition to her career and family duties, Leona was very active around her beautiful St. James home. Caring for her dogs and maintaining her property kept her as busy as can be. However, no matter how busy life was for Leona, she always found time for her family, many times putting their needs in front of her own. Whether it was a shoulder to cry on, an ear to bend or a simple favor, Leona was always there for her loved ones and will truly be missed, but never forgotten.
