

Leslie Paul Jacobs

March 4, 1952 - January 13, 2021

Leslie Paul Jacobs was born on March 4, 1952 in Springfield, Illinois to Carl and Marie Jacobs. He has two brothers, Robert and Russell, and a sister named Elizabeth.

He grew up as a farm boy, the youngest of the four kids. He was surrounded by cats and dogs and livestock and loved to play with them. His favorite thing was to carry the baby kittens around.

In high school, Les joined The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints after learning about it from a choir friend to whom he gave rides home. After graduating high school in 1970, Les took off for Florida where he enjoyed life and earned a Bachelor of Art degree in English.

Les moved to Seattle and then San Diego where he became a medical transcriptionist for a psychiatric hospital and there he met his fellow transcriptionist, Victoria, whom Les called Vichy. They became fast friends – going out for breakfast, shopping at the farmers market, and going to the movies. Vichy just happened to be a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and they were surprised to find out they had that in common!

Eventually they decided that they were in love and were married on Dec. 18, 1999 in San Diego, California. They were sealed in the San Diego temple on December 19, 2000.

In 2001 they moved to Rolla, MO where they had a better job opportunity and a chance to have their own home. After several years they moved into their current home. Les became a faithful member of the Church's Rolla Ward and served as a teacher and secretary of the Elder's Quorum and was delighted to help and serve whenever and wherever he could.

In 2015, Les retired. He spent his retirement enjoying the things he loved. He once stated how much he loved the beautiful life he and Vichy had built together.

He is survived by his wife, Victoria (Vichy), of the home; his brother Russell (Sharon) Jacobs of Springfield, Illinois; and his niece, Janet (Gary) Strugala of Dunedin, Florida. He was preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Marie Jacobs; his brother, Robert Jacobs; and his sister, Elizabeth Jacobs Rieck.
