“ To each member of the family, I am sorry for your great loss and that I cannot be there. I have many good memories of Mabel and Phyllis antiquing. Old friends go out of sight but never out of mind. Their memories always linger with the ones they leave behind. Keep in touch Phyllis, I am still buying and selling. God bless and comfort all of you.

Mable had a pretty smile and beautiful hair. I first met her as a customer at the antique mall where I work. We had similar tastes in antiques and I will always hold dear the chats we had about our treasures. I'll always think of you when I'm playing with my dolls and bears!!

A beautiful, classy lady inside, and out. I met Mabel at my work (The Family Center) a few years ago when I commented on her perfume. I told her it was my all time favorite and a lovely scent, for a pretty lady. I will miss seeing her smile come in my work and at Aldis and if I ever smell that perfume again, I will certainly think of her.
