“ To the family of "Mary" Decker. I was Mary's hospice volunteer and met her for the first time a few weeks ago and stopped by her room a day or two prior to her passing. She impressed me with her humor and stamina in dealing with no sight and no hearing capabilities. She was pleasant on our first visit and said she was in a good place. Aides expressed love for her and cared deeply during my visit. You can rest assured you did your best for her and when I told her "Jesus loves you" she appeared to breath easier so I feel her passing was a sweet one. "God's love never fails....His mercy endures forever"!
