“ I was a recent caregiver for Margaret. Many know she was blind, but that lady had eyes in her fingers and every other sense she had was honed beyond belief. She was the absolute best at Bible Trivia that I've ever seen. She rarely didn't know the answer, it was amazing. And she had a gift of knowledge of the Bible. She could tell you stories from the Bible that made you listen and held your interest, even asking in depth questions with a new thirst for her to share more of her knowledge. I'm sorry for the families loss. I know she kept contact daily with most of her children and waited daily for a call from her daughter in Jerome .. I hope that phone call came for her ... Rest in Eternal Peace Margaret. You're wings are now free ...

Connie Johnson, Thank you for your concern for my mother. I think you posting about my mother's relationship with me was inappropriate and frankly none of your business.

But yes my mom did apologize to me for pushing me away because of her favoritism for a couple of her other children and a couple of her grandchildren. I did accept her apologize.
