“ Maria Crowe was my husband's aunt. Although Maria & I only met once in person, we were always in touch by phone, especially since the death of her beloved Ray. Since his death, we spoke once or twice a week. From the time of his death to her own, she remained inconsolable in her grief. He was the love of her life. I find solace in the knowledge that they are now back together for all eternity. I remember Maria as kind, loving & having a fun sense of humor. My college daughter was working at a restaurant that closed from 2:30 until 5:00. Since she & Maria had never met, Maria went to the restaurant @ 3:30 & demanded service. My flustered daughter kept trying to explain the hours to no avail. They both had a good laugh when her identity was revealed. My now 35 year old daughter still fondly remembers her meeting Aunt Maria. Rest in peace beautiful lady. I love you with all my heart. Give "Unkie" Ray a big hug & kiss from the Hinkles.
