“ Maria and Mike were our neighbors when we lived in Salem. Wonderful, wonderful people we cherish the times we sat in the front yard, enjoying each others company, many times your Mom would invite us to come for dinner and she would go out to the garden and bring some of your vegetables in for dinner on one particular occasion she bought in 24 green beans and we all received 8 on our plates....and we laugh many times about this throughout the years on the 8 green beans....you Dad would bring out the Hagermeister and make everything better....LOL Cherished their friendship even now.....Mike and Maryann Compas
