

Nancy Ann Tilton-Koechling

May 17, 1961 - May 11, 2026

Nancy Ann Tilton-Koechling, of St. Peters, Missouri, passed away on May 11, 2026, in St. Louis, Missouri. She was born on May 17, 1961, in St. Louis, Missouri, to Billy Jo and Anna Lee (Coppedge) Tilton.

Nancy is survived by her brother, Ronald Tilton of Holden, Missouri; her nephew, Troy Tilton and wife Sidney of Holden; her niece, Amy Tilton-Lagermann and husband Larry of Holden, Mo; as well as her beloved great-nieces and great-nephews, Mason, Daxton, Charli, Taylor and Tyler, her devoted friend Bruce Garland, and the many cherished friends whose lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Billy Jo and Anna Lee Tilton. Nancy worked as an accountant for many years and was well known for helping numerous individuals and businesses manage their finances throughout her career. She was dedicated to her work and took pride in helping others with their accounting needs.

Outside of work, Nancy had a deep love for music and was especially fond of classic rock and roll. She was an enthusiastic fan of Led Zeppelin, and "Free Bird" was among her favorite songs. Music brought her joy, and she enjoyed attending concerts with family and friends whenever she had the opportunity. Nancy also appreciated the beauty of the outdoors and treasured time spent in the Missouri wilderness. She loved float trips, evenings around campfires, and making memories surrounded by nature and the people she loved most. Nancy will be remembered as a kind-hearted and spirited woman who enjoyed life on her own terms. She will be greatly missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her.

Memorial contributions in lieu of flowers can be made to: American Cancer Society. Cards are available at all James & Gahr locations.

A private celebration of life and burial will be held by her family.
