

Nathan Michael Earls

May 26, 1984 - November 13, 2023

Nathan Michael Earls of St. James, Missouri passed away suddenly on Monday, November 13, 2023 at the age of 39. Nathan was born in Phoenix, Arizona on May 26, 1984 to proud parents, Ronald "David" Earls, and Ginger Kay Pierce.

"To know Nathan was to love Nathan," "His beautiful smile and baby blue eyes would warm your heart in an instant. He always showed acts of kindness, was compassionate, happy, gentle and loving."

Nathan attended high school in St. James. On November 10, 2007, Nathan married the love of his life, Miss Tracey Carroll, this union was blessed with a son, Eathan Michael Earls.

Nathan adored his family, they spent so much time making beautiful memories together, walks in the park, star gazing, bird watching, and just hanging out. Sundays you could find them snuggling in bed and watching movies. Nathan was such a great dad, he loved babies, and kids; being a "kid" himself at heart, he was funny, and witty, he could make everyone in a room smile, and laugh especially Tracey. When their son Eathan passed away he left behind a puppy he had named Venom, Nathan and Tracey loved to play with that puppy in the yard, taking him on walks, and playing fetch, sometimes this puppy was the only thing that got them through this rough time that losing a son brings. Nathan enjoyed working with his hands building things, he had worked in the construction trade for a few years, it was something he enjoyed. He was a loving husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend, he will be forever loved and remembered by all that knew and loved him.

Nathan Michael Earls is survived by his adoring wife, Tracey Earls, of the home; mother, Ginger Glandon, of St. James, MO; father, Ronald "David" Earls, of St. James, MO; grandmother, Sara Jane Pierce, of St. James, MO; brothers, Shane Pierce, and wife Cherie, of St. James, MO, David Earls, of St. James, MO, and Nick Earls; sister, Mary Ann Earls, of Salem, MO; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

A memorial service to celebrate the life of Nathan will be held on Tuesday, November 21, 2023 at 6:00 PM at the St. James Chapel of the James & Gahr Mortuary with Pastor Stephen Brubaker officiating. Visitation for family and friends will be held at the Chapel prior to the service from 5:00 PM until service time. Memorials are suggested to the family. “ My dear husband.. There isn't words to describe how lost I am without you. Most of my life, I spent making beautiful memories w you and our incredible son. And now I'm forced to continue living without my 2 true loves. I'd do anything to have both or either one of you back.. even if just for a few moments.

Our love and the bond we shared went so far past what anyone cld ever understand. I miss you baby. I carry the heavy burden of losing you n bub, alone, everyday. And to be honest, idk how to live without you. It's a pain that I will never recover from. After losing Eathan, u pretended to be ok, so that you cld carry me. And now all I have is our memories and a broken heart that I fear will never heal. How cld I ever heal from losing my family. I hope u and our baby are together. And that u two are flying high together in the Lord's kingdom. I will always cherish the love we shared and the family we built. U will always be my 1 true love. Thank u for loving me like crazy! And being my souls match. Til we meet again, my love.. I'll be here loving you!
