

Patience Kepple

January 19, 2006 - July 15, 2023

Patience loved so many and was loved by so many more. She had an energy that with even just one encounter with Her, you would remember her for life.

If you knew her well or barely at all, she always left you thinking. Whether it was about how absolutely beautiful, sassy, funny, or just downright inappropriate she was, she left her mark on all of our hearts one way or another. Patience had a way to just get into your heart even if she pissed you off, you just loved her.

She will continue to stay with us all through memories, and the laughs she forced us all to endure whether we were in the mood for it or not. We will see her everywhere: baggy t-shirts, pajamas, pants, Nike Air Force Ones, and anytime you hear anything related to one of her favorite songs or the newest TikTok trends. And every time we roll one up, she will be in the back of our minds saying, "let me hit that."

She left the pain, but she also left us all, and we will never be the same again. Now she is no longer in pain, yet will continue to hurt. But don't cry for Patience, cry for us, we are the ones left here.

At this time, we must come together and laugh for Patience's sake. Patience would have wanted it that way. She wouldn't want to see People crying and sad but celebrating her life and sharing memories Of good times.
