

Patricia Lou Lindgren

August 11, 2014

Patricia Lou Kelley (Cook) Lindgren of Rolla, Missouri passed away at Phelps County Regional Medical Center after a long decline in health. She was in the presence of her husband of 60 year, William A. Lindgren, Sr., son William Jr and daughter Anne.

Patricia was born in 1928 to Wilburn and Edna Kelley in Crocker, Missouri. She graduated from Iberia Junior College in 1946. First married Capt. James M. Cook in 1946 - 1953 and then William A. Lindgren, of Hilo Hawaii in 1954. Patricia was the mother of seven children [Judi, Jim, Laura, Anne, Susan, Bill Jr. and Daniel], six grand children [Sandra, Anne Penson, Margaret, Joseph, Robert, and Juliene] and seven great grand children [Francis, Rebecca, James, Owen, Jacob, Emma and Genevieve] scattered hither and yon across the United States. A list of accomplishments for Patricia center on her interest in genealogy, the arts and mental health. She helped author two published family histories, founder many genealogical and historical societies in Maryland and Missouri, founding member of South Central Missouri Arts Council (today known as Arts Rolla) and Central Ozarks Mental Health Association (became the core of Pathways).

The family wishes to thank the nursing staff at Phelps County Regional Medical Center for their excellent and thoughtful care that gave Patricia during her stay with them.
