

Reva Louise Winkle

November 2, 1936 - June 16, 2024

Reva Louise Winkle of Columbia, Missouri, formerly of St. James passed away on Sunday, June 16, 2024 at Mill Creek Village Senior Living Center in Columbia, Missouri at the age of 87. Reva was born in High Gate, Missouri on November 2, 1936 to the late Henry and Gladys (Cowan) Bock.

After graduating high school, she attended nursing school and received her L.P.N. license. She married Byron Bauer and they had three children, sadly he passed away when the children were young. Reva later married Bernard Winkle , who passed away in 2009. Reva went to work at the Missouri Veterans Home in St. James. When the Government was letting state workers opt out for early retirement, Reva took it so that she could pursue other avenues. She dabbled in the Real Estate market for a bit when she went to work with Jenny Wehmeyer at Century 21. Reva also took some painting classes and surprised herself with her hidden artistic talent. She also made a few quilts to pass through the family. Most of all she loved working in her yard, she owned about nine acres just outside of St. James and up until her health no longer permitted, she lived at home and mowed about five of those acres. She also enjoyed her flower gardens, raking the leaves, and just being outdoors. Reva loved her family, and having them over for a meal, or to just visit, she enjoyed taking care of them. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother and will be lovingly missed by all those that knew and loved her. Reva Louise Winkle is survived by her son Byron Bauer and wife Carina, of Columbia, MO; grandchildren, Jeffrey (Ida) Steelman, Rebecca (Brad) Klinge, Melinda (Seth) Flick, Aaron (Katie) Morton, Alicia (Adam) Chick, Amanda Smith, and Gracyn Bauer; 21 great-grandchildren, a host of extended family and friends. In addition to her parents Henry and Gladys Bock, she was preceded in death by her husbands, Byron Bauer, and Bernard Winkle, daughters, Pamela Morton, and Sharon Sisson; sisters, Kathleen Knichel, and Francis Happel; brothers, Arlas and Marlin Bock.

Graveside services for Reva will be at the High Gate Baptist Church in High Gate, Missouri on Saturday, June 22, 2024 at 11:00AM with Pastor Stephen Brubaker officiating. For online condolences please visit www.jamesgahrmortuary.com.
