“ Robert was a tough father. He would not accept being walked on nor would he accept his children being walked on. I say here he was an angry man, but that's my opinion, because of the way he treated us girls.

First I want to say he worked hard and for the most part we had nice things. He took care of ALL of us. BUT

His discipline was hard, fast, and long sometimes. and very painful. Many people may say, " Not Robert," well, yes Robert. But he was hard as steel and he could be mean. But he was soft as a cloud as well.

He was so smart. I don't think he was told that or maybe he wasn't told enough. He didn't have a lot of school but he knew so much about a vast number of things. From roses to explaining how to rewire aa house . He was very much loved by me and most people who met him, sometimes he was very much hated by me. That is just the way it was. It's so very hard to write about your parent.we all have love hate relationships. Even Robert had that relation with his dad, he told so. I loved him and I haven't gotten past the pain of losing him but I'm getting better at it.

“ Condolences to the Fischbach family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ Uncle Bob was always telling stories about working at the gas company. I enjoyed talking and visiting with him. I had a car accident in 2001 and he came and picked me up. He took me to tgeir house and let me stay the night then took me back to town to get my things. I offered to pay him but he wouldnt let me.I was so grateful for that. Prayers for my aunt Dorothy "Juanita" and his daughters. I love you guys. Sorry for your loss. Will miss you Uncle Bob... Rest in peace.
