

Robert Nash

September 27, 2023

Robert L. Nash, Jr. (Bob), aged 75, of St. Louis, Missouri, passed away on September 27, 2023. He is survived by his wife, Liz, daughters Jennifer and Rebecca, granddaughter, Jessica, Sisters-in-law Peg, and Anne, Brother-in-law Fletcher (Lisa), extended family of Aunts, and many cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert Lee Nash, Sr., and Betty Jane Nash (née McDonald). Bob was born in Salem, Missouri, but resided in various states across the country due to his father's military career. After High School, he was encouraged by his father to join the Air Force. Following his tour of duty, Bob completed two years at Mineral Area College, then moved on to Lindenwood University to pursue a career in Broadcasting, where he met his wife, Liz, and they began their fifty-year marriage. After 20 distinguished years in the Navy, rising to the rank of Commander in his role as a PublicAffairs Officer Bob embarked on a 17-year career developing remote learning programs for universities. Beyond his professional accomplishments, Bob had a passion for restoring classic cars, perfecting his golf swing and engaging in lively conversations and laughter with neighbors. He worked hard at maintaining his friendships, which included former co-workers, childhood friends, and those who welcomed him into their families. To celebrate Robert's life, we invite you to join us at His Place Soup Kitchen at 500 E Center Street, Salem, MO, on November 4, 2023, from 12-3 p.m. We kindly request donations of food items to support the Soup Kitchen

“ I have some great memories of the trips Bob and I made to Salem to visit old high school friends. Bob was always the smartest guy in the room. Bob was truly one of the guys who deserved all of his success and yet never forgot his old friends from Salem. I will think of him often and smile. Larry Mac McQuality Pharr Texas.
