“ When I was three years old, Aunt Ruby came to spend the summer with us in Hays, KS. Mom and Dad were taking summer school classes at Fort Hays State, and we lived in married student housing. The bathroom there did not have a tub. It only had a standing shower, and I didn't know how to take a shower. Aunt Ruby taught me to run around in the shower until I was wet, then step to the side and turn myself into a "soap man." Then, I had to step back into the water and run around until the soap man ran down the drain, and I was finished! What a lovely memory! She will be missed! Love, Judy
