Sandra's greatest pride was her family; she cherished her role as a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Known affectionately as "Mom" and "Granny" by many, her heart was open to all, and her home was a gathering place for family and friends.

For many years, Sandra served as a crossing guard at William Lynch Elementary School, where she brightened the days of countless children and their parents. She loved bringing people together, organizing annual family camping trips, and enjoyed trout fishing at Montauk. Christmas was her favorite holiday, a time when she reveled in the joy of being with her "tribe." Sandra is survived by her beloved husband, Tony; her children, Amanda Swanson of Salem, MO, Cheri Sturdivant and her friend Steven McCarter of Salem, MO, Abigail Messina and her husband James of Cherryville, MO, Jessica Hall and her husband Jerry of Salem, MO, Brittney Steelman and her husband Aaron of Salem, MO, Sarah Adams of Oklahoma City, OK, and Crystal Gibbs of St. Louis, MO. She also leaves behind her sisters, Rebecca Gibbs of Salem, MO, and Carol Sue Shanor of Salem, MO; brother, James

Gibbs and wife Mindy, of Marshfield, MO; 19 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family; and a multitude of friends whose lives she touched over the years. In addition to her parents Harold and Patricia Gibbs, Sandra was preceded in death by her brother Roger Gibbs, and sister, Robin Gibbs; grandparents, John and Juanita Plank, and Unie and Letha Gibbs.

Sandra's legacy of love, kindness, and togetherness will live on in the hearts of those who knew her. She will be deeply missed but forever cherished. A memorial service will be held to celebrate Sandra's life and the joy she brought to so many. Details will be announced by the family.
