“ Sarah was a warm, loving lady who loved the Lord. During my teen years as a friend to Fran, I spent a lot of time in her home and she always treated me as a daughter. She will be missed by many but we know we will see her again if we belong to the Lord.

“ I remember being in the Weible home in 1956 when we visited the Homers. My parents and the Homers were good friends; it was Alfred and Aroa who taught my parents about being Bible-believing Christians. Robert came to Nebraska and worked for my parents one summer.

Thanks to Frieda Arl, I was able to make contact with Sarah Lois in 2018 and share some memories with her. She was a grand lady and will be missed.

My wife and I send sympathy to the family.

“ I feel so fortunate to have had Sarah in our lives. There are so many fond memories of being neighbors with Sarah. She was a source of strength and laughter for me. We would take the kids we each were babysitting out to her front yard to watch while we crocheted together. I remember lugging that huge playpen and my nephew across the yard! But it was so worth it, to be with a friend! She has a special place in my heart. I think of her every time I pick up my crochet. Sarah taught me so much about not just crochet, but life.
