“ You didn't need to know him for years to know he was a man of God and a truly good person through-and-through. You could feel it if you saw him smile or see it in his eyes. His soul always ablaze to help and love others just as he would himself if not more. You've done far more than anyone else I've ever known for those around you. Even though I knew you for such a short amount of time, I still hurt that I never got to say goodbye or see you again. I'm sure you're in a better place now, though.

“ Ken was my boss when he was the manager of the Rolla store. He was one of the best people person managers that Lowe’s ever had when I was with them for ten years. So sorry Linda & family for your loss. My prayers go out to you.
