“ TJ and I (JR) met at a karate class in the fifth grade. We were instant friends from then on. I do not know how many hours I spent in the Cifarelli house. TJ became Trevor and JR became Frankie. I have not seen Trevor in years but we had a great conversation at a sad moment in our lives when we lost Tom. I am thankful for that conversation. Tom I miss you. TJ I miss you. Thank you both for the family and friendship. Know that I always carry that with me.

“ We are saddened to hear of Trevor's passing. When we spoke to our three children this morning about Trevor each of them said the same thing. They will always remember Trevor riding Joey's bike in Aunt Gilda's driveway. Joey is one of our children and had outgrown his bike so he passed it along to Trevor. It was a black Huffy and he was very happy to ride it and do all kinds of (what he thought were) fancy stops and starts for Tommy. We are truly sorry for your loss and hope all the memories you share of him will hold him closer to you. Barbara & n Andy Colurciello
