Melissa Morton: This may seem very strange, but I rented a car from Enterprise and your grandmother's wallet was inside the car's center consol. I searched to find her online to return it (didnt trust enterprise to do that since they failed to find it in the first place) to learn she had recently passed. Iwant to be sure that it and all contents are returned to your family: please email me at tiallewis@yahoo.com (subject wallet) so i can get it to you.
