“ I have many memories, but I cherish the ones of singing with Wayne in church and seeing him smiling ear to ear as he felt the presence of the Lord. He was a wonderful Pastor and the one of the best friends I ever had. His love for the Lord made him a wonderful human being. I feel blessed that had pleasure of knowing him and blessed with his guidance and his friendship. He is already greatly missed. Love you Wayne.

“ Betty & family, so sorry to hear you your loss. We have so many wonderful memories with you guys, memories we wouldn't take anything for. Trusting you, Betty, into God's great big Loving hands, and speaking blessings into your life, and comfort in your time of loss.

Love you, and we will be there for the visitation and service..

Praying for you!
